

CODE OF CONDUCT

Welcome to Arden Fair (the "Center"). We strive to provide an enjoyable and safe shopping environment for you, your family and the employees of the Center. The Center, including the parking areas, is private property. The Center is open for the purpose of shopping, dining and entertainment; thus, appropriate behavior is required at all times. The rules set forth in this Code of Conduct ("Code") will be in effect at all times while visiting our Center and are subject to change. Persons who refuse to comply with the Code will be asked to leave the Center. Those who fail or refuse to leave the Center after being asked based on a violation of the Code may be subject to arrest.

The following rules govern your rights to be at the Center and these activities are specifically prohibited:

- 1. IMPROPER ATTIRE: Failing to be fully clothed (including wearing pants in a manner that exposes undergarments or skin to view), or wearing apparel which is likely to provoke a disturbance or embolden other groups or the general public in open conflict or is otherwise inappropriate in a shopping environment (such as clothing with obscenities, "fighting words," gang symbols, sexually explicit language or displays pornography, gritty or gruesome material). Excluding attire worn in accordance with religious practice or tradition, or for medical reasons, visitors may not wear any covering that fully or partially obscures a person's face. No hoods are allowed on or over the head at any time while at the Center.
- 2. PHYSICAL CONDUCT: Physically threatening any person, fighting, hitting, spitting, photographing or videotaping in an aggressive or intimidating manner, photographing or videotaping any individual or entity on the Center's property without the subject's consent, annoying others through noisy or boisterous activities, unnecessarily staring in an intimidating or lewd manner, staking, or in any other way creating a disturbance which is disruptive or dangerous to others or the business activities of the Center.
- 3. VERBAL CONDUCT: Verbally threatening or harassing a person, using obscenities, or using sexually explicit language, obscene gestures, gesturing in a manner which is likely to provoke a disturbance or embolden other groups or the general public in open conflict, or racial, religious or ethnic slurs which are likely to create a disturbance or infringe on the rights or peace of other patrons of the Center.
- 4. DISTURBING THE PEACE: Assembling for the purpose of disturbing the public peace or committing any unlawful act. Yelling, "hawking," screaming, singing, playing of musical instruments, radios, use of any device or instrument or equipment for the reproduction or amplification of sound or otherwise creating noise that impinges on the hearing or peace of the Center's patrons beyond a ten (10) foot radius. The use of a generator is also prohibited.
- 5. WEAPONS: Possession of any item that could be used as a weapon is prohibited, including, but not limited to: firearms, explosives, fireworks, clubs or sticks over 1/4 inch in diameter, chemical dispensing devices, knives with blades over 2 inches in length, or any other objects that may be used in any way to inflict bodily injury.
