The mood-elevating sunglasses in our new collection are some of the boldest we've designed yet. They'll make every bit of fresh air you grab this season that much more luxurious, punching up your look and your outlook in one head-turning swoop.

Exactly seven new styles make their debut in this capsule—arty, oversized shapes in a palette of classic-for-a-reason tortoises, taupes, greens, and browns—and they all feature our signature Graduated Rivet design detail. (It's those polished metal accents that give these already stunning frames some extra eye-catching oomph.) Adeline, Darcy, and Tabitha up the glimmer factor even further, with delicate metal trims along the outer edges of their face fronts that subtly exaggerate their silhouettes.

All of the frames in this impression-making collection, from the daringly circular Golding to the sculptural, squarish Gael, have an optimistic romance about them. They'll bring the glamour of a proper getaway to any backyard lounge-about or neighborhood saunter.

Dress for the vacation you want, we say!
Even if it's a ways away.
